

Providing a helping hand for your medical practice

We care for your business so you can keep providing care to others.

Running a medical practice can be complex. As your practice tries to stay on top of medical advancements and meet consumer demands, the impacts of consolidation, lagging reimbursements, and the stress of shifting traditional care models can be challenging to navigate. Whether you operate a single-site clinical practice or a multi-specialty practice with hundreds of providers, we assist in making the integration of delivering care and operating a medical practice more manageable.

Marsh McLennan Agency (MMA)'s health care consultants work with you by listening, asking the right questions, and aligning solutions to fit your business needs and organizational goals.

Risk management analysis

Our four-step process:

- | | |
| 1 Uncover risk issues through a risk management audit | 3 Create a service schedule that aligns with risk management strategies |
| 2 Prepare a solutions report to improve risk profile | 4 Offer a guided stewardship review to help you adjust as needs change |

Our guidance

Add value to your practice and bring greater peace of mind and protection for you, your colleagues, and those you serve with the help of MMA.

Common medical practice risks we assess include:

- Disaster and emergency response
- Employment practices
- Malware attacks and unauthorized access
- Patient privacy
- Recruitment, retention, and governance issues
- Regulatory compliance
